Dear Ms. Brucellaria,

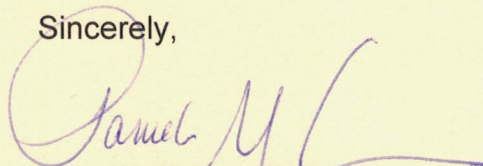

It is my pleasure to inform you that Small and Minority Business Contracting and Certification (SMBCC) has certified your business as a woman-owned business. This certification will help provide your company with increased visibility and access to state procurement.

A certificate is enclosed for display at your business location. The certificate will expire in five years. However, during the duration of the certification, any changes in address, organizational structure, ownership, phone number, etc. must be submitted to our office within 30 days of the change.

SMBCC reserves the right to cancel your certification at any time if your company is found to be ineligible.

Thank you for helping to build a sound economic base in South Carolina through business enterprise development.

Sincerely,

Pamela Green, Director
